

I bought satellite radio to get what local stations can't offer me. I pay a premium for this service. I would not like to see the FCC regulate satellite radio. Why open this can of worms? Next is satellite TV and Pay Per View. Please do not start regulation of this industry. The NAB will always have its listeners that do not want to pay for radio.